QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE TO DOCUMENTING OPERATIONS FOR DEPLOYED UNITS OF THE ARMY

1. This guide applies to all Army forces that are deployed or engaged in operational missions. The guide provides instructions for the creation and preservation of records in units and parts of units deployed for combat, emergency, and special operations both singly and as part of a task force. The records specified in this guide provide important rights and interest information for Soldiers and veterans. The Army must be able to research the location and activities of units and Soldiers involved in combat or contingency operations. Destruction or loss of Army records is a violation of Federal Law and must not occur.

2. Responsibilities. Commanders of deployed units will designate a point of contact for the monthly collection and transfer of records created in their units in accordance with processes to be established by the commander directing the overall operation. Records shipped by mail, either hardcopy or electronic records on removable media, should be accompanied by a completed SF 135. If this is not possible, a simple cover sheet can be used (legibly handwritten or typed) giving the unit's full name and address, UIC, unit POC info, name of task force, name of operation, inclusive dates of the records and a list of the records in the shipment. NOTE: Records sent to the Washington National Records Center (WNRC) will only be accepted if all transfer procedures are properly followed. The following link will take you to these procedures and provide all necessary forms:

3. This guide applies to all records regardless of media, e.g., paper, computer disks and tapes, microform, photographic film, e-mail and other electronic formats. Electronic records (received or transmitted) will be provided in the format in which they were saved. Transmit unclassified e-mail to be preserved as a record to: conops@arims.army.mil. Other unclassified records may be attached to an e-mail and sent to the same address. Put the name of the operation in the subject line. Classified records may be attached to an e-mail and sent (via SIPRNET) to conops@mail.arims.army.smil.mil. DO NOT MIX CLASSIFIED AND UNCLASSIFIED RECORDS ON ELECTRONIC MEDIA.

4. RECORDS PRESERVATION. Annex A contains a list of specific records to be created, maintained and transferred. Specific record descriptions for each of these file numbers can be found on the ARIMS web site (<https://www.arims.army.mil>) under the Records Retention Schedule – Army (RRS-A) tab. The list of file numbers in Annex A is not all-inclusive. Any records that DOCUMENT OPERATIONS of the unit will be preserved per this instruction and AR 25-400-2.

5. COPIES OF RECORDS PROVIDED OTHER ORGANIZATIONS. From time to time organizations such as Center for Army Lessons Learned and Military History Detachments will visit deployed units to collect COPIES of records. DO NOT give these organizations the record copy of information to be preserved. The record copy will be handled in accordance with these instructions and AR 25-400-2.

6. EMERGENCY DISPOSAL OF RECORDS. Army records may be destroyed only if capture by a foreign power appears imminent. Destruction for any other reason is not authorized. If emergency destruction of records is performed, a list of those records and the inclusive dates of each will be compiled, to the extent possible, and sent to U.S. Army Records Management and Declassification Agency, Records Management Division, ATTN: AAHS-RDR, 7701 Telegraph Rd, Casey Bldg. Rm. 102, Alexandria, VA 22315-3860.

7. CLASSIFICATION OF RECORDS. Do not “over-classify” records. Follow the classification guides in Army Security Regulations and/or the Operation Plan (OPLAN) for the operation. Ensure declassification instructions accompany all classified records, including electronic records, prior to transferring them. Mail classified records (double wrapped) by registered Official Mail.
